ACCUSE MILK INTERESTS OF "HORSE TRADING"

Indicted Parties Want to Make Deal with U. S., Farmers Claim

A determination not to permit milk-marketing interests to "horse-trade" their way out of price-fixing indictments is being manifested by dairy farmers of the Chicago milk shed area. The milk interests have sent men to Washington to "horse-trade" their way out of the indictments, declare Joseph Pfeffer and Edward Toelle, Burlington, Wis., farmers who have been interested in the movement in which more than 20,000 midwest farmers are said to have affixed their signatures to petitions commencing the federal government for its investigation of monopolistic practices in the Chicago area.

The petitions urge that the United States continue the investigation, in the interests of both producers and consumers, and press the indictments to speedy trials.

Called "First Hope" Expressing the aims of the signers of the petitions, Pfeffer and Toelle said, "The indictments are the first hope we thousands of dairy farmers have had in years of being allowed to make a decent living."

"We're going to let every dairy farmer in southern Wisconsin, northern Illinois, southern Michigan and northern Indiana know that they are in danger of being horse-traded out of their big chance."

Indictments were issued by the federal government in November against a total of 57 corporations and individuals, including the Pure Milk Association, on charges of conspiracy to manipulate milk prices in the Chicago area.

NIGHT SCHOOL CLASS ENROLLMENT GROWS

"Livestock Heredity" and "Health and Food" Are Coming Subjects

As the livestock raising and home making evening classes get deeper into their courses, interest appears to be increasing. Several new members have also been added to the groups.

"Consumer Education" was the topic in Mrs. Ruby Richey's home making class Wednesday evening. C. Kutil, instructor for the livestock class, presented data on "The Feeding of Dairy Cattle," stressing the economy of choosing the proper foods and using dry and roughages to their maximum.

On Wednesday evening, Jan. 25, home makers will take up the subject of "Health and Its Connection with Food." A motion picture, entitled "Food Makes the Difference," will be shown.

Livestock producers will have what is expected to be one of their most interesting programs, a discussion on "The Genetic Viewpoint in Livestock Improvement."

Mr. Kutil, who spent last summer studying the problem of livestock heredity and its application to stock improvement under Dr. Cassida at the University of Wisconsin, will lead the discussion. Illustrative motion pictures will be shown.

The meetings are held at the Antioch Township High school at 8 o'clock, and new members may join the classes at any time.

Mystery Drama at Crystal Tonight

The first mystery drama of the season, "Pop Goes the Weasel," will be presented tonight on the Crystal stage by the J. B. Roinour Players. J. B. says the play is different from all others and offers every member of the cast an excellent opportunity for real acting.

Next Thursday a rural comedy, "Disappearing Jimmy," will be shown. This play is loaded with comedy and unique dramatic situations and will keep the audience guessing until the final act.

As usual, merchants' free tickets may be obtained from any firm listed in the Crystal ad in this edition of the News. The company presents a different play each Thursday night.

C.

Verkest received his award aboard the U. S. S. Pensacola, a cruiser of the navy on board which he is serving with the Marine detachment.

TO NAME JUDGE CANDIDATES AT ROCKFORD APR. 15

Republican Nominees for Circuit Judgeships to Be Confirmed Then

Rockford, largest city in the seventeenth judicial district, has been chosen for the Republican judicial convention of 1939 at which candidates for the three judgeships of the circuit court will be nominated on April 15.

The judicial election will be held on Monday, June 5. Under the election law nominations of candidates must be made 40 days prior to the election.

County central committees are empowered to select delegates to represent each county in the district convention at which judicial candidates are nominated.

Plans for the convention were made at a meeting of the four chairmen of the Republican central committee for the district, which comprises Lake, Boone, McHenry and Winnebago counties.

William Marks, Lake Villa, represented Lake county at the meeting; C. Frank Daly, chairman of the McHenry county body; Edwin Loop, Boone county, and Paul Rosenquist, Winnebago county, were the others present.

Up for Re-election

The three sitting jurists, Judge A. E. Fisher, Rockford; Judge William L. Pierce, Belvidere, and Judge Ralph A. Dady, Waukegan, are all expected to be candidates to succeed themselves. Judge Fisher has already given public expression of his candidacy.

Judge Pierce was elected at a special election 13 months ago to fill a vacancy created by the passing of Judge Shurtliff. Judge Dady was elected in 1930 to succeed Judge C. C. Edwards, who resigned.

Circuit judges are elected for a term of six years.

ANTIOCH LANCES KEEP SELVES BUSY

More Games Are Scheduled for Team; Change Name to "Merchants"

The players on the Antioch "Ironmen" Lances basketball quintet are rivaling Lou Gehrig with regard to the number of consecutive games played.

They took part in three games on the local floor Monday evening and played again on Tuesday evening.

On Monday evening they defeated the Mansville's Dept. team, 33-24, in the first game, and won over Triangle Service, 34-28, in the second. In the third game, however, the Lances weakened and lost to the Triangle Service, 36-22.

In a close, thrilling game Tuesday evening the Lances lost, 23-26, to the Wisconsin Creamery team of Kenosha.

The Lances will wear their new black and white suits for the first time next Monday evening when they will play against the Rosecrans Hillbillies and another team from Waukegan. The team was enabled to purchase the suits through the generosity of Antioch merchants, and at a meeting Monday evening they voted that in appreciation they would change the team name to the Antioch Merchants.

On Tuesday evening the Lances will play the curtain-raiser on the Antioch Lions' card against McHenry.

To date the team has played 26 games and won 14.

ANTIOCH CLOTHIER LAUNCHES BIG SALE

Otto S. Klass Will Close Out Half of Stock at Reduced Prices

Unusually low prices on standard merchandise will be featured at the Klass clothing store here for ten days starting this Saturday at nine o'clock. Included in the sale will be nationally advertised brands of merchandise, the handling of which has won for the local store an enviable reputation near and far.

Men's clothing, footwear, furnishings, and women's hosiery are to be sold at bargain prices to reduce stock. Manager Klass states that the drastic price-cutting is caused by "prevailing conditions coupled with the backward season" and that he finds his store overstocked.

In past year, Mr. Klass says, he has not acquired the habit of conducting price-cutting sales at frequent intervals, but that when he does announce a sale the public may expect to find offerings that are genuine bargains.

The store will be closed all day Friday to rearrange stock and mark down prices.

He was united in marriage in 1909 to Hannah Kinney of Fond du Lac, Wis., who preceded him in death five years ago. There were no children.

Mr. Sheehan was engaged in farming until about two years ago, when he retired because of poor health. Since then he had divided his time between visits with his brother, Herbert and his sister, Sarah.

CLUB HEARS TALK ON PROPAGANDA'S VARIED ASPECTS

"People of Democracy Can Make up Own Minds," Atty. Tells Civic Club

"One of the fine things about a democracy is that you can hear all sides of a question when it comes to a matter of propaganda. In a dictatorship you would be permitted to hear only one side," Milton A. Kallis, Waukegan attorney, told members of the Men's Civic club at a meeting Monday evening in the Danish hall.

Covers were laid for between 35 and 40 for the 7 o'clock dinner which was a prelude to the program. The dinner was served by women of the Rebekah lodge.

"Tool of Propaganda"

In his talk, entitled "Is Propaganda a Challenge to Democracy?" Mr. Kallis endeavored to analyze propaganda, and described it as the tool of "any political party or any group trying to promote itself."

"Some of the devices of propaganda are 'name-calling,' 'glittering generalities' and the 'plain folks' line," he told his listeners.

"All propagandists try to ally the things they want people to favor with the things they know people already favor; similarly, they try to ally things they want people to disfavor with things they know people already disfavor," said Attorney Kallis.

Need Scientific Attitude
"A person's only hope in trying to separate out the truth from the mass of propaganda is to try to adopt the 'scientific' attitude, discarding prejudices and weighing things on their own merits," the speaker concluded.

Because of the freedom of speech and press in this country, America is constantly subjected to a wave of propaganda from abroad, Attorney Kallis observed during his talk. However, he pointed out, all sides are given the opportunity to speak, and the average citizen is free to make up his own mind, unhampered by restrictions.

MORE CANDIDATES ENTER RACE FOR TOWNSHIP OFFICE

James Webb Will Seek Supervisorship; Four for Road Commissioner

Local politics took on added interest this week with the entry of three more candidates for township office. In the event that all aspirants file their petitions with Town Clerk Richards there will be seven candidates in the April election—three seeking the office of supervisor and four for highway commissioner.

The petition of James Webb for supervisor was being circulated in Antioch yesterday. Webb was elected constable in April, 1937, when he was high man in a field of nine candidates for the office, receiving 509 votes out of the total of 1,497. This feat, his sponsors say, shows that the candidate possesses considerable political strength in the township. Webb is now at the home of his son recovering from injuries received in a highway crash last Sept. 3 near Elkhorn, Wis. After many months spent in hospitals he is now on the way to recovery and will soon be out and around again.

Other candidates for supervisor include B. F. Nabber, incumbent, who has served for many years, and William Hattendorf, young Republican, who has served efficiently as clerk in many of the county offices.

Four Seek Commissioner Job

The township highway commissioner job has thus far attracted a field of four candidates, according to reports. They are, the present commissioner, Carl Barthel, who has many years' experience in his credit; Jack Flanagan, former state highway maintenance patrolman, and the two new entrants—Ed Hillebrandt, a resident of Klondike community, and Tom Runyard of Channel Lake, member of the executive board of the Channel Lake community club and secretary of the Channel Lake school board.

All candidates will run on the People's ticket, according to Clerk Richards. The first day for filing petitions will be February 1 and the last day, Feb. 28. All terms are for four years. The election date is April 4.

Handicraft Classes Continue Activities

The handicraft classes being sponsored by the Antioch Recreation committee as a part of its community recreation program are continuing their meeting periods.

A ping-pong table for the use of grade school children after school is the latest addition to the program.

Handicraft groups for adults meet at the grade school on Tuesday evenings. Those for children are held on weekdays after school and on Saturday mornings.

The Milk Indictments

Interest seems to be steadily growing in the matter of the 57 indictments, charging monopolistic practices, which were brought against organizations and individuals in the Chicago milkshed area by the federal government in November.

The latest development is a petition said to have been signed by more than 20,000 farmers of this area. The petition commends the federal government for investigating "price-fixing" on the part of marketing concerns and allied organizations and individuals, and urges that those indicted be brought to trial as rapidly as possible.

The indignation of the farmers is said to have been especially aroused by reports that one of the most influential organizations among those indicted is attempting to "bargain" with the federal government to have the charges against it lightened or set aside.

The farmers are also said to be asking that the federal government continue its investigations along the lines on which they were begun.

On the face of the matter, it would seem that if the organizations and persons indicted were blameless, they would have nothing to fear from an investigation or a trial, and would even welcome a chance to prove themselves in the clear.

It would also seem that in case a monopolistic grip is being extended over Chicago's milk supply, in justice to the producer—and to the customer, for both suffer—this condition should be remedied.

It is not too much for the producer—in this case the dairy farmer—to receive fair compensation for his work, risks of loss and his often heavy and sometimes sacrificial investments. If a monopolistic hold over the milk supply has been cheating him of profit, and at the same time been charging the consumer a disproportionately high rate for the milk he buys, the investigations should be followed up and the parties believed to be guilty should be brought to trial.

It would appear that federal officials have "the goods" on the overlords of the milk industry. Indeed, it would be silly to vote indictments without first obtaining sustaining evidence. It will be interesting to note what final disposition is made of these cases. If the entire move turns out to be merely a political gesture, made under the pretense of obtaining a more equitable price scale for dairymen, but in reality accomplishing exactly nothing, then no one profits from the action—except perhaps employees of the federal department who have been given many months of employment at the expense of taxpayers.

LAKE VILLA

Lake Villa Com. Church (M. E.)

L. B. Allen, Pastor
Sunday School—10 A. M.
Worship Service—11 A. M.

The church board will sponsor a series of entertainments at the Village hall on the first, second and third Friday evenings of February, and a part of the entertainment will consist of a "True or False" quiz, in which teams of five from the Aid Society, Royal Neighbors, Firemen and business men will take part. This promises to be a pleasant diversion and the public is invited. There will be a small charge.

Little four year old Barbara Jean Fawcett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fawcett, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Tweed, contracted diphtheria two weeks ago but seemed to be recovering nicely when appendicitis set in last Friday. She was rushed to the Lake County hospital in an ambulance but she was not able to have the operation and she passed away at 2 o'clock Saturday morning. The funeral was held at the Monaville cemetery Sunday afternoon, with Rev. Allen officiating. The family has the sympathy of the community in its loss of this loving little girl.

Mrs. John Sonnenberg had her mother, Mrs. Meyer and two sisters from Aurora as her guests for several days last week. They left Thursday to visit relatives at Rockford.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold an afternoon card party, with dessert luncheon at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. Martha Daube, on Wednesday, Jan. 25, and ask for your patronage to help carry on their work. There will be prizes and tables for bridge, 500 and bunco.

Plans have been formulated by the Board of Directors of the Lake Villa school for the building of a combination gymnasium and auditorium to the present building. A public mass meeting will be held Wednesday evening, Jan. 25, at 8 P. M. to discuss these plans. All are urged to attend this meeting.

The Thimble Club enjoyed a luncheon and a pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Fred Hamlin last Thursday. Mrs. P. R. Avery, Mrs. Ahlander, Mrs. William Fish and Mrs. C. Hamlin occupied chairs at the meeting of the Waukegan Royal Neighbors at the Moose hall last Thursday evening. Mrs. Swenson, Mrs. Fred Hamlin, Mrs. H. Davis, Mrs. Davis, Sr., Mrs. Clara Peterson and Mrs. Anzinger also represented the Cedar Lake camp.

Edward Leonard has been confined to his home by illness for the past ten days. Mr. and Mrs. Gleason were Waukegan visitors late last week and called on William Sheehan at the hospital. He is improving.

Junior Tweed, John Galiger and Jack Stratton left early Saturday morning to join the CCC camp which was to go west, probably to Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Leonard and sons of Round Lake spent Sunday with their mother and brother, Edward and wife.

Luella Peterson, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Peterson, was taken to the Lake County hospital last week Wednesday and underwent an operation for appendicitis immediately. She is recovering nicely and expects to be home this week.

Harry Nickerson, his son, Russell, and daughter, Mrs. Helen Hansen of Grayslake, drove to Michigan last Friday to attend the funeral of their son and brother. The burial took place in South Bend, Ind.

Lake Villa School News

Upper Room

The seventh and eighth grade pupils put on a program for the P. T. A. Monday night. They got a microphone set from Mr. Dixon's brother to use. There were several songs, tap dances, and two trumpet duets. Then we had a spell-down at the end. Robert Hodgkins won it.

Movies were held in the basement Tuesday. They were about experiments in physics.

We have a new kind of exam now. It is in the form of a crossword puzzle. They ask, for example: "What is an important product of Brazil?"

We planted some corn last week in a glass jar filled with sand to watch it grow. We will have to transplant it in a box because it is getting too big for the jar.

The boys are going to play basketball at Gavin Wednesday night.

Our room won the flag at the P. T. A. meeting last night, by having the most parents present.

Luella Peterson is in the hospital. She had an operation for appendicitis early this week. We all hope she will be back with us soon, as we miss her. Johnny Meyer went to the Ski Jump at Cary last Sunday and enjoyed it very much.

Intermediate Room

We have just finished our border. It is very nice. We have people skating and tobogganing, and also sliding.

Lois Parsons went to Chicago last week. She stayed a full week and had a very good time.

We are making Health pictures and Health charts.

Primary Room

We have Eskimos on the sand table. The children have made eskimo books and posters.

Dallas is very happy to have a pet dog. She is writing a story about it. She named him Champ.

Most of our third graders are back now, so they have caught up in spelling and Science. They will be busy with arithmetic for some time.

Bill Hucker enjoyed watching the Ski Jump at Cary Sunday.

End Flagrant Demagoguery

A well known economist, in a forecast of 1939 business prospects, states that one highly encouraging element is the apparent lessening of political "business baiting."

It is true that business as a whole has been accorded less abuse of late, due largely to the result of the November elections, in which a number of extremists and radicals of both parties were retired from office by their disgusted constituents. But business' very real and justified fear of political persecution remains a dominant factor in current domestic affairs. There is still a sizable school of small bore politicians—most of whom never operated a productive business in their lives, and whose livelihood for years has been contributed by the taxpayers—whose principal delight is to attack these private industries which provide the nation's jobs, taxes and opportunities, and keep the country a going concern. The banks, the utilities, the large retail systems, outstanding manufacturers—these are but a few of the great industries, the cornerstone of our national economy, which have been the butt of vicious and unfounded attacks by vote-seekers.

Business isn't perfect. If business breaks the law, it should be punished. If there are abuses in business, legislation can be framed to correct and prevent them. But to seize upon the occasional industry or businessman, who is justly subject to criticism, and claim that this is representative of all business, is the most flagrant kind of demagoguery. It is the kind of demagoguery which drives money into hiding, which creates unemployment and lack of confidence, and which prolongs depression. It is becoming evident that the public is getting fed up on this kind of cheap "statesmanship."

It remains to be seen what attitude the current Congress will take toward business. If it is a fair and cooperative attitude, the country will go forward. If it is "flagrant demagoguery" the country will go back.

It Can Happen There

A dispatch from one of the foreign dictator countries discloses that official government censors have been assigned to the editorial rooms of all newspapers. Every newspaper, the dispatch says, must henceforth operate under the watchful eye of a censor officially designated as "confidence man for surveillance of the press." His job, of course, will be to suppress news unfavorable to the dictator and his regime.

Readers of this, and every other American newspaper, should be glad to know that no such censor sits behind the editor's desk here. We suspect that our newspapers would not be half so interesting or enlightening to read if such a condition did exist.

Fruit Punch (in the Eye)

News dispatches say the government is now operating several orange, lemon and grapefruit groves in western states. They passed into government ownership via the HOLC foreclosure route, and former owners are being employed to care for them.

Whether the taxpayer likes grapefruit or not he's now obliged to pay a grapefruit bill. He'll get the usual reward, of course—right between the eyes.

Rattlesnake's Caress

Rattles Deer Hunter
SISKIYOU, CALIF.—Chief of Police Charles D. Doggett admits he was alarmed at having his hand caressed by the tongue of a rattlesnake.

Doggett had shot a deer and was trying to trail it by the blood stains on some high wet grass. As he spread the grass aside he felt his hand being tickled. It was the tongue of a 30-inch rattler.

GIVES FORTUNE TO CHARITY, NOW BROKE

Once Rich Philanthropist Penniless at 88.

NEW ORLEANS.—William J. Warrington, 88, has given away a fortune to more than 500,000 homeless wanderers.

Today he is as penniless as the shabby men who drift in and out of his 40-room ancestral mansion. Yet the white-haired Warrington directs his own Warrington House, a women's center, a boys' home and a trades center.

Warrington finished at an exclusive preparatory school in South Carolina nearly three-quarters of a century ago. He owned valuable coal property and two Louisiana plantations, booming in the days before the boll weevil.

For lack of a career, he returned to New Orleans and recovered his ancestral property built more than a century ago by Jean Remarie on property bequeathed by the king of France.

One day Warrington watched two boys—members of an aristocratic Creole family—steal a peddler's wagon and race through the streets. Their fathers threatened to disown them and left them in the Cabildo, an old prison.

Warrington obtained their release and cared for them until they could obtain work. Gradually police and welfare organizations began sending him unfortunates for his 40-room mansion.

Long before the turn of the century Warrington liquidated coal mines and his plantations. He made public appeals for assistance and spread his activities to the homes for women and boys and to the workshop.

Warrington's only permanent boarder is Hobo—a tan and white mongrel that wandered into Warrington House last winter.

He and his dog are up early in the morning to hunt bargains in grocery stores. Alone, Warrington supervises the day's program for his relief agencies and personally attends to interviews.

Recently Warrington began negotiations to have the city take over his institutions.

"If I were younger," he said, "I might be able to carry on the struggle. But I am an old, old man."

Poverty Hides Fortune

ST. HYACINTHE, QUE.—Pierre Brunelle, 97-year-old hermit who died here, supposedly in poverty, left a fortune estimated at between $300,000 and $400,000, it is reported.

Brunelle died in a little wooden home where he had lived alone for years. Relatives were reported to have found $160,000 in bonds, $6,000 in gold, silver and bills hidden under the carpets, in an old mattress and other places in the house. He is also reported to have owned a considerable amount of property here and elsewhere.

Brunelle, a bachelor, worked nearly all his life as a laborer and janitor and lived frugally, although he was supposed to have had an income of $12,000 a year from property, bonds and money left him by his father, brother and sister years ago.

Brunelle's only known relatives, Mrs. Pierre Angers, a half-sister, and Wilfrid Brodeur, a nephew, refused to discuss reports that he had left a fortune.

Brunelle was born in St. Hyacinthe and lived here all his life. His last job was a furnace man at a convent, from which he retired six years ago. Townfolk who asserted they knew him said Brunelle lived on the modest sum of $50 a month and was usually poorly dressed.

Retriever Is Too Good;

He Even Brings in Rugs

CLEVELAND, OHIO.—Speck, a spaniel, embarrasses his mistress because he is too zealous a retriever.

Instead of limiting his retrieving activities to an old shoe, or a ball Speck juggled home a 6 by 9-foot porch rug. He vanished again and reappeared with a smaller rug.

His master and mistress, Mr. and Mrs. Hazel Richardson, tried to track down the rug's sources by canvassing houses in their neighborhood. They were unsuccessful in the search. Finally they took the rug to the local police station.

Speck, meanwhile, was on his way home with a large bottle of peanut butter.

Firehouse Put in Flames

By Its Own Noon Whistle

MONROE, WIS.—A fire was started in the firehouse when one of the firemen blew the noon whistle.

A short circuit in the electric wiring started the blaze, which was extinguished before much damage was inflicted.

PATIENT TELLS OF HER FEELINGS AS HER MIND RETURNS

Quick Results Are Obtained by Use of Injections of Metrazol.

MERIDIAN, MISS.—Shocked from insanity, a woman released from the East Mississippi state hospital here recalls with clarity the delusions she felt in that gray world.

The woman who prefers to remain anonymous, is one of 15 persons believed cured by the "shock treatment." It consists of convulsions and a 56-second coma induced by injections of Metrazol, a comparatively new discovery.

The 11 women and four men thus far released are part of a group of 92 treated. One of them had been insane for 20 years. Others of the group may be released soon. Only two failed to react at all, and only seven responded slightly. No deaths from the treatment have occurred, physicians said.

Looking back, the woman remembers that it was after the third injection of Metrazol that she began to recognize members of her family. Then she said she realized for the first time that she had been insane. She realized her position and saw her companions as they were. She also knew the reality of insanity and the possibility of her being cured.

Feared Poison Food.

This woman remembers refusing to eat anything not wrapped in cellophane for fear of being poisoned. At one time she said she thought if anybody touched her they would die.

Describing the treatment by Metrazol injections, she said: "The first time I thought they were killing me, that they were planning to put me out of my misery. I hoped I would die. But after the third shot I understood what they were doing and I was glad, I prayed to live."

Great care must be used in its administration of the shock treatment, according to Dr. William J. Cavanaugh, staff physician and psychiatrist. The patient must not have any organic disease, acute infection or heart trouble which would make the shock too dangerous.

Dr. R. L. Rhymes, staff physician and surgeon, told of the thorough physical examination and correction of defects by surgery, the building up by diet, hydrotherapy and electrotherapy given patients before they are given the treatment.

Other Treatments Used.

"We are using the treatment, which is, of course, only one of the forms of treatment in this hospital, with encouraging results with the schizophrenic patients," Supt. John S. Hickman said.

This group includes the "split personality" class. The treatment has also proved effective in treatment of nearly all forms of insanity except those having organic causes or in which the brain tissues are injured or destroyed, Doctor Hickman said.

Describing the treatment, an educated patient, improving under the series of shock but still undergoing the Metrazol treatment, said:

"It's indescribable. I imagine a deadly shock of electricity is like it. It is like being stifled. It goes up my arm and then around my heart and in my chest. Then I lose consciousness. It knocks me out completely. It kills me. That's what it does. I can feel my eyes jerk and my jaws open and that's all I know."

"When it is over, I sleep awhile and when I wake up I can't remember anything. Gradually it comes back to me, but it is blank from the time of the shot until I wake up."

Rugged Individualist Is

Fined by English Court

BOURNEMOUTH, ENGLAND.—Appeasement has cost Abraham Richard Hewitt, local hardware merchant, $82.50.

Hewitt deals in metal garbage cans, but for his own home he used a wooden box, thus violating a local ordinance. For 20 minutes the magistrate tried to persuade Hewitt to reconsider his firm stand and use a metal garbage can.

"Don't you ever change your mind?" the magistrate asked of Hewitt.

"No, sir," he replied. "My name is not Chamberlain. You can't Hitlerize me!"

As this was the third time that Hewitt was summoned for the same offense, he was ordered to pay $15.25 on the spot and $1 for each day he had violated the law.

Late for Trip to Gallows;

'So Sorry!' Commuted

SYDNEY, N. S. W.—Sentenced to death for shooting a tribesman in New Guinea, two native policemen almost missed the boat that was to take them away to be executed. They arrived breathless as it was about to sail, and apologized profusely.

The two were officers of the New Guinea native armed constabulary, and had killed the tribesmen when they found them suffering after a skirmish.

When the two arrived at Port Moresby, Papua, where they were to be hanged, they learned their sentence had been commuted to imprisonment.

DEEP-SEA DIVER REMINISCES OVER ODD EXPERIENCES

Wife Worries Over Wet Feet When He Goes on Trips For Groceries.

FAIRPORT HARBOR, OHIO.—How deep-sea divers lasso fish—just for the fun of it—was told here by Harry Reinhartsen, working on the old E. G. Mathiot, sunken ship in Fairport harbor.

"Yes, we used to catch them that way down by Miami," the diver said, polishing the glass of his helmet. "This certain species of fish is very lazy and we would sneak up on them with loop of wire, slip it over their tails, and a helper up above would hoist 'em up to the boat before they knew what had happened."

The fish weighed from 50 to 80 pounds and were good eating, Reinhartsen said. He and another diver indulged in the lassoing sport while working on a sewer project—"during recess, you might say."

Reinhartsen, who is 50, was the diver who removed the first body from the submarine S-51, which was rammed and sunk in Long Island sound. Every man died at his post and Reinhartsen worked in 130 feet of water during salvage operations.

Worked on S-48 Also.

He worked also on the S-48, which sank while on a trial run off Bridgeport, Conn., in 75 feet of water. All of the crew escaped by coming out a torpedo tube in the bow, so the diver was sent down with an electric torch to cut a hole in the bottom to permit air to be pumped into the hull to raise the sunken vessel.

"I got a bad case of 'bends' on that job," the veteran diver said. "It wasn't that I was working so deep as that I stayed down too long and ascended too rapidly. 'Bends' are caused by gas bubbles forming in the blood under the terrific pressure. Nothing happens until you come up. Then the gas bubbles out of the blood, like a bottle of pop just opened. This causes painful cramps—or death if they get to the heart."

One of his jobs, Reinhartsen was sent to the bottom of Lake Michigan—210 feet down—to inspect the wreck of a ship suspected of having been sunk for the insurance.

Since the pay of divers is proportional to the depth at which they are forced to work, he receives $130 a day for his efforts, and as he could work only 20 minutes daily, because of the pressure, his pay figured to about $408 an hour. Actually it was considerably less, because, after working only 20 minutes at this depth, Reinhartsen had to spend three and one-half hours in ascending to the surface by degrees to avoid the "bends."

Testimony Wins Suit.

On the strength of his testimony that the seacocks in the bottom of the ship had been opened, the insurance company won a suit, releasing it from liability.

Reinhartsen is married and says he has his wife "pretty well trained" and accustomed to the risks he undergoes. However, on one job on which he was required to search a reservoir near Jersey City for the body of a fisherman in 110 feet of water, his wife became worried. One diver had been killed on the job—sucked into a water intake at the bottom.

"That got my wife," Reinhartsen said. "She called me up at quitting time one night and begged me to leave the job. But I went home and talked to her several hours and convinced her that it was all right. Next day I went down and found the man after about 10 minutes."

"Funny thing," he said, "she worries more now when I'm out getting the groceries or something. Afraid I'll get my feet wet—maybe get pneumonia, I guess."

Vets Veto Judge; Insist

On Being Sent to Jail

TORONTO.—"Gully," said two Toronto men, charged in police court with fishing unlawfully with a net in the waters of the lagoon at Toronto island.

The men, both war veterans, pleaded that they were unemployed and had no other means of obtaining food for their families.

"Nevertheless, the law is the law," said Magistrate Robert J. Browne, himself a war veteran. "I'll have to impose a fine of $10 or a jail term."

"Can't pay," the accused men chorused. "We'll have to serve the time."

"No," the magistrate replied, "you don't have to. I'll pay your fine myself."

"Not a chance," the accused men insisted. "We won't agree to that. We can take it."

"All right," Magistrate Browne ruled. "That leaves me no alternative. You'll each go to jail—for the term of one hour."

The two veterans spent 60 minutes in their cells and were home with their families the same night.

Trapper Outrains Coyote

LAWTON, OKLA.—John J. Pickens, who has trapped 73 coyotes in the Wichita mountains wildlife refuge, spotted a three-months-old coyote pup while driving through the refuge. He chased it about for half a mile across rocky slopes before the tired animal dodged into a rock crevice. Pickens pulled it out by the tail.

Brown Bess, British Musket
Brown Bess, with relation to arms, is a name given in the British army to the flintlock musket with which the infantrymen were formerly armed. The term was applied generally to the weapon of the Eighteenth and early Nineteenth centuries, and became obsolete on the introduction of the rifle.

The Narwhal

The narwhal is rather closely related to the beluga or white whale, but differs from this and all other whales and dolphins in its long rapier-like tusk. Despite its threatening appearance, the narwhal is reported to be quite an inoffensive animal.

Greatest Weight-Lifter

The greatest weight-lifting act of which there is an authentic record was performed by P. J. McCarthy of St. Louis in 1898, according to a writer in Collier's Weekly. Standing beneath a platform and using his arms and back, he raised a load of stones weighing 6,730 pounds, or more than three tons.

Tree-Climbing Fish in Borneo

In northern Borneo is found the mudskipper or tree-climbing fish—one of the most remarkable of nature's freaks. The fish spends most of its time skipping about the mud flats in search of food or basking in the sun perched on a mangrove root or a stone on the edge of a pool.

The Dropping well is at Knarborough in the West riding of Yorkshire. The waters are impregnated with lime and have a petrifying power, this action causing a curious and beautiful incrustation where the water falls over a slight cliff.

Has No Hands, but He's Football Star
CHAFFEE, MO.—The star player on Chaffee high school's football team is 17-year-old Archie Tom Smiley, who without hands and with but one eye has become the team's best blocker. He frequently carries the ball. Smiley lost both of his hands and his right eye in a Fourth of July explosion.

A REAL GOLD BRICK IS POLICE PUZZLE

Loot Is Found Melted Into Precious Ingot.

FLORENCE.—An ingot of pure gold has baffled Italian police and hampered the liquidation of two cases of robbery perpetrated here last summer.

Several months ago a band of thieves broke into Villa Marmagliano, mansion of Mrs. Beulah Branch, widow of a Chicago banker, for many years a resident of Florence. They carried off money, silverware and jewels with a total value of more than $100,000.

A short time later another theft, the traces of which had strange resemblance to the one at Villa Marmagliano, occurred in the palace of Goffredo Visconti, an eccentric 90-year-old multimillionaire of Florence.

Police put their ablest detectives on the case and after four months arrested a prominent jeweler, Sestilio Giannini, of Florence on charges of receiving stolen goods.

Following Giannini's confession police captured Otello Balzani, leader of a band of half a dozen thieves, including his 26-year-old mistress, Valeria Uccifanti. Police have rounded up the entire band, which now is awaiting trial in the Murate jail of Florence.

In the home of a member of the band, Angiolo Cini, police found an ingot of pure gold weighing about 350 grams.

Cini confessed that part of the gold bracelets and earrings stolen from Villa Marmagliano had been melted together with rings and other jewels stolen from Visconti's home.

Mrs. Branch's jewels were recovered in part in Giannini's shop, but a diamond ring worth $10,000 and a pearl necklace of greater value have not been found.

Police have not reached any decision regarding the gold ingot, which perhaps will be equally divided between the American widow and the aged Visconti.

Maine Only State Missed In His Round of Prisons

CROWN POINT, IND.—Jefferson Sharun, a kindly-faced old man with silver hair, smiled up at the judge. "Well, your honor, I've now been sentenced to prison in every state in the Union except Maine."

"How did you evade Maine?" asked the judge.

"Maine was too small," Sharun replied, adding, "but you can take it from me that crime does not pay."

Sharun and his two accomplices had been sentenced to 2 to 14 years in prison for milking $6,000 from Ben I. Schultz, a Gary, Ind., junk dealer. Schultz told the court that Sharun told him he had a scheme to "break" all small race-horse handbooks.

Sharun left a farm in Daviess county, Ind., and eventually became a clever "con" man.

In a small cell, Sharun leaned back and talked smoothly.

"I never took an honest man. I always took a sucker and never felt sorry for them because they were trying to get something for nothing too."

Stanford U. Parties Are Easy Prey for Bandits

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, CALIF.—The practice of campus policemen flashinging petting parties is driving romance off the campus of Stanford university and out into the neighborhood hills where couples become the victims of petting party bandits, according to protests now being made by scores of coeds.

An unusual number of these hold-ups has taken place recently, and as the bandits rob the girls as well as the men, it is the coed element that has taken up the task of remedying the situation.

Stanford this year has only 500 coeds against 3,000 men students with the results that the girls are dated up almost every evening.

Whale Aids Hospital
EDINBURGH.—Left by the tide on Trent bank, near Scudthorpe, a whale weighing three and one-half tons was bought from the customs authorities for $2.50 by William Starkey. The whale was then placed on exhibition and the proceeds donated to Scudthorpe hospital.

Bug in Ear 26 Years
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.—Somebody literally must have put a bug in Mrs. Lizzie Metcalfe's ear 26 years ago. A recent X-ray examination revealed the insect in a good state of preservation. Mrs. Metcalfe said she had been having trouble with her ear since 1912.

OVID, N. Y.—"Whalzit," a freak colt that looks something like a mule and runs more like a deer, frolics on Leon C. Wickham's farm.

CROOK, DISGUISED, TOURS WORLD AS POLICE HUNT HIM

Spiro, $3,000,000 Swindler, Gets Eight Years Penal Service in England.

LONDON.—After having, by a series of disguises, eluded for 13 months the police of eight countries and toured the world as a hunted man, Stanley Grove Spiro has been sentenced in the Old Bailey, London, to eight years' penal servitude, for stock swindling involving $3,000,000.

A man called Graham—his real name is Strakosch—is, it was stated in court, being hunted in the United States after absconding from extradition proceedings. Except for this fugitive, all Spiro's accomplices have been rounded up.

"Brains of a band of commercial brigands," the Recorder called Spiro, adding that he was the head of a society that made war on the community by elaborately planned activities.

Never Robbed Poor.
 The convicted man made no comment. His boast has been that he had never robbed widows or the poor, and to a reporter of the London Daily Express he had said: "I have walked on the shady side of the street of finance too long to complain about what is coming to me. I have had the sweets for a long, long time. I can take the bitter now."

Stanley Spiro, who was born in South Africa 42 years ago, married the daughter of a canon of the Church of England. She died of cancer in Switzerland a few months ago. She knew he was the head of several companies, but nothing whatever of his crooked transactions.

His fraud was simple. He bought an old-established Scottish brokers' business and opened a London office. This gave him 500 clients—wealthy people—who had trusted the firm for half a century. Spiro used the good Scottish name of Elphinstone. Later, he was "Mr. Royston," sometimes "Mr. Richards," occasionally "Mr. Mortimer."

With his clients he always first did legitimate business. Then he induced them to part with valuable securities and receive in return shares that were worthless.

Puzzled by Success.
 Spiro founded a worthless concern called Scottish Gas Utilities corporation and a colliery company. Their shares were exchanged for real securities. Yet Spiro was puzzled by his own success as a seller of shares to shrewd and hard-headed business men.

His own story of how, while the police of all countries were on the lookout for him, he escaped detection, follows:

"I eluded the police with a six-inch beard and a perfect-fitting wig. And I was a hunchback at times." (Here he slouched up his shoulders.) "And my stomach came out to here." (Here he held his hands a foot from his waistcoat.)

"I got my hunchback and my stomach in Berlin. I had them made for me. They were of papier-mache. There were straps on the hunchback so that I could fasten it round my shoulders, and there were straps for the stomach, too."

"No one would ever have known me when I was wearing them. I walked into England—right under the noses of two specials who were watching me. Right under their noses, boy!—that gave me a thrill."

"I was arrested three times while I was away. Once in Mexico, once in Germany and again in Austria. I had no passport or papers. Each time I talked myself out of it. I never crossed a frontier by train. I always walked across—slipped in unnoticed."

Finds He Slept for Two Nights With Dead Man!

TOLEDO, OHIO.—Police here investigated the story of a 53-year-old man who said that he had slept in bed with a friend for two nights without knowing that the man was dead.

The first night he noticed nothing unusual, he related, and when he came home and went to bed the second night, he still thought nothing was amiss although his friend had not moved.

At the end of the second day, he tried to awaken the "sleeping" man. He failed, and called police to whom he told his story.

Deputy Coroner A. H. Steinberg said the man had died of natural causes and probably had been dead 48 hours.

Court Punishes Husband As He Punished His Wife

BERKELEY, CALIF.—Police Judge Oliver Youngs believes in a certain application of the "eye for an eye and tooth for a tooth" law. When Mrs. Gustav Berndt complained that her husband knocked her down and poured one pitcher of ice water down the back of her dress and another down the front, Judge Youngs ordered Bailiff Charles Mullin to take the husband to the basement of the court and apply the same treatment to him.

"Now how do you expect me to get home in these wet clothes?" demanded the soused prisoner upon his return.

"The same way your wife did," replied the judge, "and start right away."

Glass Eye Dispatches

Live Man to Morgue
SAN FRANCISCO.—Wendell Brabham, 40 years old, knocked out in a street fight, insists he has a joke on the doctors who assigned him to the morgue as dead.

He told a municipal judge that the physicians merely turned up his eyelid to see if there were any reflexes and there were none. It was a glass eye.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY CAUSES HEADACHES

All Is Confusing With Two Scotts in Suburb.

CLEVELAND.—A "case of mistaken identity" is causing the Kenneth D. Scott family, of suburban East Cleveland, unwelcome fame—all because another Kenneth Scott, professor of classics in Western Reserve university's Flora Stone Mather college, is not listed in the city telephone directory.

Professor Scott, an authority on Fascism, is much in demand as a lecturer. He does not receive the attention due him, however, as it goes to his namesake—Kenneth D. Scott, an illumination engineer.

"The misdirected telephone calls and letters aren't the worst part of this mistaken identity business," Engineer Scott said.

"What is most annoying is that those seeking Professor Scott would believe me when I say that I'm not he. I have interminable arguments with telephone callers who insist that they are talking to the professor."

"On several occasions I've had to use firmness in closing the door on persistent searchers for Professor Scott. They do everything but put their foot in the door," he added.

He said that the callers-in-person say he "looks like the professor."

Here is a partial list of misdirected items which have come to the Scott family addressed to Professor Scott.

Invitations to speak on their travels in foreign countries, to which they never have gone.

Poems and jokes on the New Deal. (The purpose of these contributions baffled the Scott family.)

Letters from Germany addressed to "Kamerade."

Engraved invitations to formal dinners.

Money for speeches never made.

The Engineer Scotts received a check for a lecture which Professor Scott gave before a local organization.

The Scott family deducted no compensation for being awakened at all hours of the night by the phone calls for the professor—and they returned the check.

'Eye for Freedom' Plea For Convict Is Denied

JACKSON, MICH.—Officials of Southern Michigan prison and state corrections department rejected the proposal of a 24-year-old convict to give up his right eye to a sightless man in return for his freedom.

The convict, Marby Underwood of Detroit, serving a 2 to 10 year term for obtaining money under false pretenses, offered his right eye because his wife was homeless and needed him. He said she was forced to sleep in all-night theaters.

In a letter to Warden Joel Moore, Underwood asked he be allowed to give the cornea of his eye to William Lewis, 28, a Canon City, Colo., attorney who needs one to restore his sight. Four Colorado convicts awaiting execution have refused to aid the attorney.

Grizzly and Two Women Meet the Same Hard Luck

RONAN, MONT.—Mrs. Charles Joyce and her sister, Mrs. Fred Owens, together with a grizzly bear, all played in the same luck.

The two women were driving alone when a grizzly, evidently losing its footing on a nearby hillside, came bouncing down the hill and landed plump on the front of the car. The women had no firearms and the bear was too groggy to attack them.

So both went different ways, the bear in a rather zig-zag manner and the auto at high speed.

Pussy Ends Long Life Of Ice Cream and Meat

BURBANK, CALIF.—Bill, a 17-year-old pet cat of an apothecary, died here of dropsy. The cat's utility during its long span of life had consisted of chasing away stray dogs.

By a daily balanced diet of ice cream and beefsteak, the druggist had been able to maintain its weight for years at 18 pounds.

Bolt Turns Sand to Glass
TAMPA, FLA.—Lightning as a glass-maker was exhibited here during a thunderstorm. A bolt of lightning struck a tree, ran down the tree and jumped from the tree roots to an underground telephone cable. Along the underground path the heat fused sand into a tube of glass.

Third Set of Triplets
CAPTOWN, SOUTH AFRICA.—Mrs. Groenewald, wife of a railroad employee, gave birth to her third set of triplets at Frankfort.

Louis vs. Lewis

Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis, the much-feared "brown bomber," will defend his title next Wednesday night against John Henry Lewis, colored light-heavyweight champion, in a 15-round bout at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Meaning of Name Lulu

The name Lulu is generally conceded to be a diminutive of the Teutonic-Louise, which would make it mean "famous in battle" or "heroine of war," writes Florence A. Cowles in the Cleveland Plain Dealer. But it may also be an independent name and other meanings are possible. For instance, the North American Indian name Lulu means "a rabbit," and the Persian Lu'lu' means "a jewel." Some think Lulu is a form of the Anglo-Saxon Lulie, "a soothing influence," which is probably related to Lulette (Teutonic), meaning "little comforter." So Lulu may take her choice of a variety of meanings.

Peanuts Known 900 B. C.

Peanuts were known as early as 950 B. C. They were brought in this country after the Civil war, and for many years the crop was confined to North Carolina and Virginia. It was not until the ravages of the boll weevil made farmers turn from cotton to peanuts that cultivation jumped. They are grown in Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, Oklahoma, and Texas. Peanuts are used in making more than 300 products, including candies, cheese, instant coffee, pickles, oils, shaving lotion, dyes, lard, grease, wood stains, butter insulating boards and even gasoline.

Ancient and Honorable Artillery

The Ancient and Honorable Artillery company was organized in 1637 and was then called the Military company of Boston. It was a company formed of the leading citizens of the city of Boston and later the organization took part in the American Revolution. The company never joined the Massachusetts militia, but remained a separate organization. It is now composed of descendants of the founders.

Weights of Alloys

Aluminum alloys of equal physical characteristics weigh 175 pounds per cubic foot. Brass and bronze weigh respectively 531 and 550 pounds.

Diamonds Render Good Service
 Diamonds are not alone used to sparkle on and enhance millady's beauty. Industry values the diamond for another reason—it is among the hardest substances known and is used to drill and grind metals that cannot be worked with less valuable materials.

The 'Laughing Jackass'
 The "laughing jackass," or Kookaburra, an absurdly shaped bird of the Australian bush, is known for its mocking, fiendish laughter. A forest-dwelling kingfisher, its "catch," made from a stump or tree limb, consists of snakes, rats, mice, insects and even smaller birds.

Spirit of Hartshorn
 That combination of nitrogen and hydrogen known as ammonia at one time was obtained by destructive distillation of the horns and hoofs of animals. The resulting solution of the gas was known, therefore, as spirit of hartshorn.

Last of the Great Auks
 The great auk became extinct on the morning of June 4, 1844, when the last two auks on earth were killed on Eldey island.

Use of Word 'Count'
 "Count" is the English word ordinarily used for foreign titles equivalent to the English "earl."

Tree Ferns Grow High
 Some of the largest tree ferns of Australia and New Zealand attain a height of 80 feet.

From 'Ten Lost Tribes'
 The Folasas of Ethiopia claim descent from the "ten lost tribes" of Israel.

Tobacco Seed Light
 From 300,000 to 400,000 tobacco seeds are required to weigh an ounce.

Nickel Adds Strength
 Nickel imparts toughness, strength and ductility to steel. When used in large amounts in steel it makes the metal resistant to heat and acids. Steel with nickel alloy is used for tools and machinery parts. The United States uses 60 per cent of the world output of nickel, importing chiefly from Canada, Norway and New Caledonia.

First Spanish Bullfighter
 Although tradition names the famous Cid as the original Spanish bullfighter, it is probable that the first Spaniard to kill a bull in the arena was Don Rodrigo Diaz de Vivar, who about 1040, was proficient with the lance in the sport. The first great professional bullfighter was Francisco Romero of Ronda in Andalusia, who introduced the estocade, the sword, and the muleta, the red flag.

Produced First Circular Saw
 The first circular saw in this country is supposed to have been produced by Benjamin Cummins, about 1814, at Bentonsville, N. Y.

GET A SAFER CAR TODAY
 ...Tomorrow may be too late!

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN TO YOU IF A TIRE BLEW OUT AT 60?

YOU'D BE SAFER WITH HUDSON'S EXCLUSIVE AUTO-POISE CONTROL

WHY? Because this revolutionary mechanical invention (patent applied for) automatically helps to keep wheels on their course—on rough roads, in heavy side winds, even when a tire blows. The operation of AUTO-POISE CONTROL does not require special tires, tubes or extra equipment of any kind. It is standard at no extra cost on all 1939 Hudson passenger cars; NO OTHER CAR HAS ANYTHING LIKE IT.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN TO YOU IF HYDRAULICS SUDDENLY FAILED?

YOU'D BE SAFER WITH HUDSON'S EXCLUSIVE DOUBLE-SAFE BRAKES

WHY? Because, even if hydraulics should suddenly fail through accident or service neglect, the driver of a Hudson just pushes farther on the same foot pedal and STOPS. Thanks to Hudson's exclusive Double-Safe Brakes—two braking systems (finest Bendix Hydraulics and a separate reserve mechanical system) working automatically from the same foot pedal. Many letters in our files tell of accidents prevented by Double-Safe Brakes, standard in all 1939 Hudsons.

PETER DENIES HIS LORD

LESSON TEXT—Luke 22:31, 32, 54-62.
GOLDEN TEXT—Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.—1 Corinthians 10:12.

One of the most heartbreaking experiences we have as Christians is to find that one in whom we have had every confidence as a true and faithful follower of the Lord, has denied Him by going out into almost unbelievable sin. Often it seems that those who, like Peter, have had the loftiest and most inspiring fellowship with the Lord, and who speak with the greatest ease about His love and grace, turn to the most reprehensible of sins.

Let any unbeliever who reads this begin to gloat over the failures of Christians, let him be reminded now of his own sin which needs his attention, and of the fact that though Peter fell, he arose again to victory and usefulness. May it also be said that none of us has any right to a "holier than thou" attitude toward a brother who has fallen. "Let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall" (1 Cor. 10:12), and let him in broken-hearted sympathy help to restore his stricken brother "in the spirit of meekness: considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted" (Gal. 6:1).

I. Sifted but Not Destroyed (vv. 31, 32).

Satan, who is a far more powerful spiritual being than most folk think, is actively interested in tempting the Christian. He uses many clever devices. Although he is not possessed of divine powers, he does have supernatural cunning and knows the weakness of each one of us. He knew the boastful self-assurance of Peter and was ready to tempt him at that point. Jesus knew this, and even in this dark hour shortly before His crucifixion He takes time to warn Peter, and with His warning to give the assurance that though it was to be tried, his faith was not to fall, and that he was to be restored to fellowship and service when he "turned again," which is the correct translation for the word "converted."

II. Self-assurance and Disgraceful Failure (vv. 33, 34, 54-60).

Peter was sure of himself and of his consecration to the Lord. A man who stands in that place is in grave danger. It is not long before we find Peter, apparently presuming on his own ability to stand fast, consorting with the enemies of Christ, warning himself by their fire. Someone has suggested that the great spiritual problem of our day is not the conflict between the Church and the world; nor is it to determine how the Church can best serve in the world, but rather what to do about the world which has gotten into the Church. How did worldliness get into the Church? The members brought it there after they had gone out and warmed themselves at the world's fire, and fellowshiped with the world in ungodly living.

The denials made by Peter seem almost unbelievable in the life of one who had been in immediate fellowship with the Lord and who had seen His glory. We have here a revelation of the fact that "the heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked; who can know it?" (Jer. 17:9). We agree with Dr. Willbur M. Smith: "This is of the Devil. This is humanity sinking to the lowest plane of base ingratitude. This is shame upon shame." One might have hoped that one denial would bring quick and sincere repentance, but instead it leads the way to a second and to a third. There seemed to be nothing that could stop Peter, until "the Lord turned and looked" at him. This suggests the only effective way to deal with backsliders. Argument, pleading, even shaming them; will do no good. We must bring them to the place where they meet their Lord.

III. The Look of Love and a Broken Heart (vv. 61, 62).

What was in the look of Jesus is perhaps best expressed by Alexander MacLaren: "It spoke of Christ's knowledge, of Christ's pain, of Christ's love."

The backslider needs first of all to realize that the Lord knows all about his denials and sin. He has been hiding things from his family and friends, denying accusations, trying to cover up his guilt. Let him now abandon every such effort. Jesus knows all about it.

The second thing to be realized is that he has added to the pain and sorrow of his Lord. For a believer to turn away from Him is no light matter, to be casually dealt with. He needs to be deeply conscious of the wounding of the heart of the Lord, as well as of the damage done to God's people and His cause in the earth.

But above all it was a look of love. The Lord deals in tenderness with the backslider. While he never can or will condone sin, He loves the sinner, and especially does He love the one who belongs to Him but who has gone astray. What a gracious Lord we do have!

GIVEN 18 MONTHS TO LIVE, DAREDEVIL FOOLS HIS DOCTOR

Doomed to Be Helpless Cripple,
He's Beating His Own
Way Back.

ST. LOUIS.—Eighteen months ago Ray Woods, mild-mannered little daredevil who became the country's No. 1 bridge jumper, was told that if he lived he would be a helpless cripple.

That was on March 22, 1937, the day he jumped from the San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridge. He was blown off balance in the midst of his 180-foot plunge and was pulled from the water with several crushed vertebrae.

"He won't live 24 hours," physicians said.

Woods fooled them. He's the only man who ever jumped from the bridge and lived to tell about it.

"He'll be a bed-ridden cripple," the doctors later insisted. He fooled them again. Last summer he swam a mile every day.

"He'll never be able to walk," they said.

And Ray Woods intends to fool them on that one, too. He leaned on his crutches, smiled a determined smile and vowed:

"I'll be walking normally within a year . . . two years at the most."

Career Is Ended.

Then he added:

"But I'll never dive again. Even if I regain the use of my legs, I could never stand the physical shock of striking the water. And even if I could I have no desire to dive now."

The same dogged courage that led him to defy death in countless high dives all over the country has enabled Woods to win at least a partial victory in his battle for recovery.

After the dive physicians diagnosed Woods' injury as a compound fracture of five vertebrae. Even if he lived, they reported, he would be a helpless invalid the rest of his life.

A month later, when Woods' wife, Bernice, and his mother brought him back to St. Louis he was paralyzed from the shoulders down. But an operation disclosed his spinal cord was not severed. A surgeon cut away part of the crushed third, fourth and fifth vertebrae, between the shoulder blades, relieving pressure on the spinal cord and allowing nerve impulses to pass through to the lower part of his body.

Treatments with a slow-wave electric generator stimulated his paralyzed muscles.

Says: "I'll Walk Again."

His wheel chair gave way to crutches and, with braces supporting his legs, he began to walk. Last spring he moved with his wife and father-in-law to a secluded lodge on the Meramec river, 25 miles from St. Louis.

There he spent every day in a swimming pool.

As the result of his exercise Woods' crippled legs are fully developed. He now weighs 150 pounds. During his 10 years of professional diving he was in perfect condition at 135 pounds.

Woods does not look upon his career as a diver with regret because it has left him, temporarily, at least, a cripple.

"I made all my dives for money, not for the thrill. The shock of striking the water after a 100-foot dive often left me unconscious. I was just like a boxer going into the ring. He knows he probably is going to be hurt and doesn't like it, but he wants the money."

"I dived because I loved to travel and that was the only way I knew to see the country and get paid for it. I have no regrets. I've seen most of the United States, Canada and Mexico. I've crammed three ordinary lives of excitement and sight seeing into my 32 years. And before long I'll be walking again."

Canadian Gets Two-Year

Jail Term; 'Happiest Man'

MONTREAL.—Romeo Perron, 33 years old, declared he was the "happiest man in the world" when he was sentenced to two years in prison here.

Perron walked into police headquarters one night and demanded that he be arrested and sent to prison because he had family troubles and wanted to learn a trade. Police refused.

Perron, after sitting around the station for several hours arguing with police, walked out and smashed the window of the nearest store, crawled in and sat on the floor to await policemen.

"You should have arrested me when I asked you," he told them when they arrived.

Perron was arraigned in court on a charge of breaking and entering, and, smilingly, he pleaded guilty, and asked the judge to send him to St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary for two years.

The judge granted his request.

Trees Used as Landmarks

Sequoits Lose to
Libertyville, 27-24

(By Scoop)
The Antioch Sequoits met their second conference defeat at the hands of the Libertyville quintet at the Libertyville gymnasium 27 to 24 Friday night. This defeat brings the Sequoits' average down from 750 per cent to 500 percent.

The Libertyville lads started the game by taking a 6 to 2 lead at the end of the first quarter and led at the intermission by one point. At the end of the third quarter the Antioch Braves were one point ahead of the Libertyville boys. But during the final minutes of the fourth quarter the Libertyville lads opened up and at the final gun the Sequoits found themselves to be on the short end of a 27 to 24 score.

In the opening game the light-weights were defeated by the Libertyville seconds 36 to 23. Bartlett and Palaske were the high scorers for Antioch with 6 points each.

Effinger Lost to Team

Jack Effinger, star forward and only veteran first team man, will be absent from the lineup for the rest of the season as a result of the hip injury received during the Warren game a few weeks ago.

Jack has played on the Sequoit squad since starting high school and for three years has played on the Antioch Varsity. The team's plays this year were practically built around him and the team as a whole is greatly hampered by his absence.

Sequoits to Play Lake Forest

The Lake Forest Quintet will invade the Antioch reservation tomorrow (Friday) night. Last year the Sequoits were defeated 25 to 21 by the Lake Foresters.

EYESTRAIN and
EYE PAIN

The eyes are the "mirror of the soul," or at least so they have been called. When they are working right they serve to bring much joy and happiness into a person's life. Some common symptoms of eyestrain are headache, double vision, sickness at the stomach, and even severe vomiting. Still other persons complain of general nervousness, rapid beating of the heart and sleeplessness.
